Present at roll call:	Councilmen:	Black, N. Hatgas, Foote, Selig, Walsh
	Mayor:	Procuk
	Clerk/Treasurer:	Clymer
	Law Director:	Dowling

Tim Clymer Clerk Treasurer stated that the Public Hearing was called tonight to pass the 2015 Tax Budget for Cuyahoga County. It is a document that we are required to prepare for the budgetary law. The county looks at a few things such as a rough 2015 estimated budget to make sure we don't have any projecting negative balances or a need for increased local government funds which is hard to get. The main item they look at is our outstanding debt. It's a non-issue for us because we have no debt which makes this document fairly simple. Tim Clymer asked if there were any questions.

If there are no questions there will need to be a motion from Council to pass the 2015 Tax Budget in order for it to be sent to the County.

It was moved by Councilwoman N. Hatgas, seconded by Councilman Foote to pass 2015 Tax Budget.

Yeas: All of Council

Nays: None.

Motion Carried 5-0

Tim Clymer Clerk Treasurer concluded the Public Hearing.
