OUTPATIENT DRUG COVERAGE: PART B VERSUS PART D

Your prescription drug costs and coverage depend upon which part of Medicare covers your drug. Understanding which part of Medicare should cover your drugs will point you toward the Medicare rules you need to follow. You can get Medicare prescription drug coverage through a Part D stand-alone prescription drug plan or through a Medicare Advantage Plan that includes prescription drug coverage.

Part B Usually Covers:

- ♦ Drugs your provider administers.
- ♦ Drugs administered at a dialysis facility (that buys the drugs themselves)
- ♦ A small number of outpatient prescriptions you get from the pharmacy (mainly certain oral • cancer drugs for chemotherapy).
- ♦ Certain vaccines (usually only flu, pneumonia, and Hepatitis B). Make sure the pharmacy accepts your Part B coverage. If you have a Medicare Advantage Plan, check their rules about flu shot coverage.
- ♦ If you are a hospital outpatient, Part B should cover all medications that relate to the reason for your hospital visit.
- ♦ Tip: You usually pay a 20 percent coinsurance after meeting the Part B deductible. If you have a Medicare Advantage plan, different costs may apply. If you get your medications from a pharmacy, make sure the pharmacy accepts your coverage.

Part D Usually Covers:

- ♦ Most drugs you get from the pharmacy or through mail order (outpatient drugs).
- ♦ Most prescription drugs that you can administer yourself.
- ♦ Vaccines not covered under Part B, including the shingles vaccine.
- ♦ If you are a hospital outpatient, Part D will cover medications that you administer yourself and do not relate to the hospital visit.
- ♦ Tip: Make sure it is included in your plan's formulary, which is the list of drugs they cover, and use a preferred network pharmacy.
- ♦ Tip: You usually pay a co-payment for your medications, once you meet a deductible. The amounts vary based on your plan and how much you have spent on prescription drugs so far this calendar year.

Note: If you are in an inpatient in a hospital or skilled nursing facility, your drugs are usually covered by Part A.

February, 2016

Dear Residents,

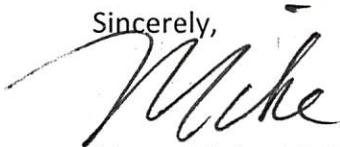

I am writing to share with you important information which may help you receive a discount to your insurance premiums.

The Insurance Service Organization (ISO) is an independent evaluation service that determines the capabilities of Fire Departments and Building Departments for the insurance industry. ISO ratings are one of the many factors that affect insurance premiums.

I am pleased to announce that the Brooklyn Heights Fire Department has received a rating of Class 3, a distinction only attained by 3.6% of fire departments nation-wide. Similarly, our Building Department has received a rating of Class 5 for residential dwellings. Both of these ratings are a testament to the services and staff of our village, and the commitment and dedication of the administration and employees of Brooklyn Heights to provide you, our resident, with a great community.

With this information in mind, documentation from both the Fire and Building Departments can be found on our village website for you to download. I suggest you contact your insurance company and inquire if this excellent rating in our community entitles you to a reduction in rates.

Sincerely,

Mayor Michael S. Procuk

BROOKLYN HEIGHTS FIRE DEPARTMENT ISO CLASS 3
HOW DOES THAT AFFECT ME?

Whether we like it or not, paying for insurance is a fact of life. Homeowner and business insurance companies use many factors when determining the cost of your premiums. One major factor is the level of fire protection. Most insurance carriers use what is known as ISO to determine the quality of fire protection available and therefore establish insurance rates.

ISO stands for Insurance Service Organization. This is a group of trained, professional evaluators that assess almost every fire department in the U.S. ISO uses a consistent set of guidelines to evaluate all aspects of fire departments suppression capabilities. The purpose of ISO is to give insurance companies a uniform system on which to base their insurance premiums.

For an insurance company knowing the capabilities of a fire department is important. The better the fire department, the better protected a building is from fire damage and loss. ISO gives a ranking of 1 through 10, with 1 being the best and 10 being no protection at all.

To obtain an ISO Class 3 with a combination part-time department is a rewarding task. In the nation, only 3.6% of fire departments are an ISO Class 3.

ISO ratings are one of the many factors that affect insurance premiums. The Village of Brooklyn Heights's last ISO analysis for fire suppression services was completed on November 24, 2014. To find out if there is any change in your insurance premium you would need to contact your insurance agency.

RE: Village Building – Fire Department Rating Information

DATE: January 12, 2016

This is to inform you that the Insurance Services Office (ISO) has given the Village of Brooklyn Heights Building Department a rating of 5 for residential and 5 for commercial. ISO has attributed a rating of 3 for the Village of Brooklyn Heights Fire Department.

Please submit this information to your residential and commercial dwelling insurance company to possibly obtain a discount on your insurance premium.

WHAT IS ISO?

The Insurance Services Office or ISO was created in 1971. It was originally a non-profit association of insurance companies. Its purpose was to provide services, such as rating and statistical reports, on behalf of its member companies.

ISO is no longer controlled by insurers and it operates as an independent for profit company. Today ISO is a public company that provides risk assessment information to insurance companies for a fee. ISO is an essential source of statistical, actuarial, claims and underwriting information for insurers.

For example, insurers provide premium and data loss to ISO for various types of coverage such as residential and commercial properties. ISO tabulates the data and provide reports to insurers. The reports help insurers determine which type of insurance have been the most and least profitable. This process helps insurance companies determine rates for various areas. An efficient and well-staffed fire and building departments are essential in eliminating property losses, and thus keeping premiums low.

ISO implements a scoring system for fire and building departments. It will range from 1 to 10 with 1 being the best score. Presently, the Village of Brooklyn Heights is rated a 5 for commercial and 5 for residential. This reflects an improvement from the previous rating of 9 for residential and 6 for commercial.

We will continue our effort to improve on the current rating to provide our residents with the possibility of even lower insurance rates.

Nino Monaco,
Building Commisioner

PROGRAMMABLE THERMOSTATS

When it comes to energy savings, few upgrades pay off as quickly as a programmable thermostat.

If you turn down the heat 5 degrees at night and 10 degrees during the day when you are at work, you will cut your energy bill by 5 to 20 percent. If you raise the temperature the same amount during the cooling season you will experience similar savings. You can do this manually with a regular thermostat, but with a programmable one you will never forget to turn down the heat at night and raise the temperature before you get up in the morning.

Most home centers carry several programmable models priced $100.00 or lower. Generally more money means more programming options. Before you shop measure the footprint of the old unit. If you buy a new one that is at least as large, you won't be left with wall gaps to paint or cover with wallpaper.

January

NEW YEAR, NEW LAWN

- Consider dormant seeding your lawn. This seeding method can be quite successful as the freeze and thaw cycles of winter pull seeds into the soil, increasing spring germination.
- Be a responsible dog owner and scoop the poop. Pet waste pathogens, like e-coli, end up in rivers and streams even during a January thaw.

DID YOU KNOW?

When the ground does not freeze completely, grass continues to grow, even under a blanket of snow.

May the Lord bless the City of Brooklyn Heights

709 Brookpark Rd. Brooklyn Hts 216-351-7995 calvarychapelcleveland.com office@c3outreach.com

We at Calvary Chapel have been blessed by the welcome from the city of Brooklyn Heights, the city council and Mayor.

We are a Non-Denominational church that is more about simplicity than robes and ceremonies. Our focus is on Jesus, the Bible and the love of God. Our prayer is to be known for God's love flowing through us. We want to be a blessing to this city. It is an honor to be the first and only church in Brooklyn Heights. If we can do anything to help or meet a need in the city please let us know. We have a huge emphasis on family and there are a lot of kids who attend Calvary Chapel. We believe children are a blessing from God!

We want to leave
you with a verse of encouragement for today.

In John 8:30-32 Jesus said the those who believed on him; "If you continue in my word then are you my disciples and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free." Free from what? Free from all the lies and confusion in this world. God's Word is truth; it is the only thing we can depend on in this world of lies. Knowing the truth means to experience the truth. Jesus is Truth. When you truly get to know him you will have peace. This will make you not just a believer but a true disciple of his. It is so, so simple. We must all talk to him (prayer) and we must take the time to listen to him (read bible). May the Lord bless you today!
