RULES FOR MEDICARE PLANS - WORKING WITH BROKERS

People representing Medicare plans aren’t allowed to:

- Ask for your personal information (like your Medicare, Social Security, bank account, or credit card numbers) over the phone unless it’s needed to verify membership, determine enrollment eligibility, or process an enrollment request.
- Come to your home uninvited to sell or endorse anything.
- Call you unless you’re already a member of the plan. If you’re a member, the agent who helped you join can call you.
- Require you to speak to a sales agent to get information about the plan.
- Offer you cash (or gifts worth more than $15) to join their plan during a sales pitch for a Medicare health or drug plan.
- Ask you for payment over the phone or online. The plan must send you a bill.
- Tell you that they’re Medicare supplement insurance (Medigap) policies, if they are an Advantage Plan.
- Sell you a non-health related product, like an annuity or life insurance policy, during a sales pitch for a Medicare health or drug plan.
- Make an appointment to tell you about their plan unless you agree. During the appointment, they can only try to sell you the products you agreed to hear about.
- Talk to you about their plan in areas where you get health care like an exam room, hospital patient room, or at a pharmacy counter.
- Market their plans or enroll you during an educational event like a health fair or conference.

Independent agents and brokers selling plans must be licensed by the state, and the plan must tell the state which agents are selling their plans.

Rules for meeting with an agent:

If you’re going to meet with an agent, the agent must follow all the rules for Medicare plans and some specific rules for meeting with you. During the meeting, people who work with Medicare plans can:

- Give you plan materials.
- Tell you about the plan options and how to get more plan information.
- Give you an enrollment form.
- Collect your completed enrollment form.
- Leave business cards for you to give to friends and family.

During the meeting, Medicare plans and people who work with Medicare can’t:

- Charge you a fee to process your enrollment into a plan.
- Steer you into a particular plan.
- Communicate incorrect information about their plan type or use inappropriate statements like their plan is "the best" or "highest ranked."
- Tell you about other plan options you haven’t agreed to discuss, unless you specifically ask about them (to discuss these options, you need to complete a separate appointment form).
- Pressure you to join their plan by saying things like "you have to join this plan or you won’t have coverage next year."
- Ask you to give names and phone numbers or addresses so they can sell to your friends or family.
- Ask you to sign the enrollment form before you’re ready to join.
- You should only sign the form when you’re ready to join.
- After the meeting:
  - The plan will contact you to make sure you want to join and that you understand how the plan works.
  - The agent who helped you join the plan can call you to talk about other plan options.

Dear Village Residents,

Turn your clock BACK on Sunday, March 8, 2020! The Brooklyn Heights Fire Department reminds you to change your smoke detector batteries as you reset your clocks to daylight savings time. The time changes in the fall and spring coincide with recommended battery life in a smoke detector. As part of our ongoing effort to make certain that every village household has a working smoke detector, the fire department will accept any resident’s request to have their smoke detector batteries replaced. More importantly, if you do not have a working smoke detector or if it is ten years old or older, please buy one and we will install it for you. If you would like to participate in this program, please fill out the form below and drop it in the payment box located to the left of the main entrance of our municipal building or mail it to 345 Tuxedo Ave. BH 44131.

I will personally be in contact with you to schedule a date and time.

With Safety in Mind
Donna Tesar, Fire Department Administrative Assistant
