Rules And Regulations

SEASON PASS & GENERAL ADMISSION

Residents of Cuyahoga Heights, Brooklyn Heights and Valley View, their guests, and limited Cuyahoga Heights' tuition student pass holders will be permitted to use the pool. Season pass fees and guest prices will be determined yearly by the Mayor's Office at the Cuyahoga Heights Village Hall.

All season passes issued to residents, district residents and Cuyahoga Heights' tuition student pass holders are non-transferable. A pass in the possession of one who is not the owner may be suspended or confiscated by the Pool Manager. Season passes may be revoked any time by the Pool Manager if the owner fails to conduct himself/herself according to the rules and regulations of the pool.

A guest of a resident pass holder, or a guest of a district resident pass holder, must be accompanied by that pass holder. Only residents and district residents who have a valid pass may bring in a guest.

Valuables may be checked in at the Cashier's office. There is no charge for this service. The management shall not be responsible for lost property or valuables. Only employees are permitted in the Cashier's Office. Bathing suits shall not be worn to the swimming pool unless covered by street clothes. No pass holder shall be permitted outside the pool enclosure or on the upper sundeck wearing only a bathing suit.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The swimming pool reserves the right to close for special events. A sign will be posted.

The pool will be available to rent to pass holders for a fee on Saturday evenings from 7:00-9:00 p.m. You must be 25 years and older to rent the pool. Contact Pool Manager to schedule your event.
